HERRESHOFF MARINE TRADE EXPLORATION WEEKS – The Herreshoff Marine Museum will be hosting Marine Trade Exploration Weeks during the April school break and would like to invite 10 of our students to participate this February. This is the third year Herreshoff Marine Museum has partnered with the Rhode Island Marine Trades Association (RIMTA) and Real Jobs RI to offer these exploration weeks which combine hands on STEM activities with tours of local marine related schools and businesses. The week is designed to give students the opportunity to learn about potential careers and education in marine related fields which is one of the growth areas focused on by the Governor's Workforce Board. Some of last year's partners included IYRS, Goetz Composites, Symmetrix Composite Tooling, Hinckley Yachts, Hunt Yachts, Quantum Sails, and Zim Sailing. This year students will be building scale sailing models which all participants will get to keep at the end of the week. In addition to all these activities, students will receive a $100.00 stipend for completing the week long program. Herreshoff Marine Museum will provide transportation to and from our school for students. Students can apply for the program online using this link <https://form.jotform.com/90065429159158>. Interested students should apply ASAP. Please see Mrs. Krupa in the Guidance Office for the application deadline date.

LT. GOVERNOR'S ENTREPRENEURSHIP CHALLENGE – LGEC is a business pitch competition that allows entrepreneurial-minded students in grades 9-12 to compete for a share of $10,000 in scholarships. To compete, participants write detailed business plans that are scored by local business leaders. The top five scoring students or student teams advance to the Finals Competition in August 2019 where they pitch their business ideas to a panel of judges. Finalists receive scholarships based on their business pitch score. The deadline to apply for the 2019 LGEC is Thursday, April 11, 2019 at 8:00 p.m. Detailed information related to LGEC can be found in the enclosed packet and at www.rilgcec.com.
